PROVERBS 3: 1 – 10
3 My son, do not forget my [a]teaching,
But let your heart keep my commandments;

2 For length of days and years of life
And peace they will add to you.
3 Do not let kindness and truth leave you;
Bind them around your neck,
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 So you will find favor and good [b]repute
In the sight of God and man.
5 Trust in the Lord with all your heart
And do not lean on your own understanding.
6 In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He will make your paths straight.
7 Do not be wise in your own eyes;
Fear the Lord and turn away from evil.
8 It will be healing to your [c]body
And refreshment to your bones.
9 Honor the Lord from your wealth
And from the first of all your produce;
10 So your barns will be filled with plenty
And your vats will overflow with new wine.

MARK 5: 25 - 34
25 A woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years, 26 and had endured much at the hands of many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but rather had grown worse— 27 after hearing about Jesus, she came up in the crowd behind Him and touched His [a]cloak. 28 For she [b]thought, "If I just touch His garments, I will [c]get well." 29 Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. 30 Immediately Jesus, perceiving in Himself that the power proceeding from Him had gone forth, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My garments?" 31 And His disciples said to Him, "You see the crowd pressing in on You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'" 32 And He looked around to see the woman who had done this. 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. 34 And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has [d]made you well; go in peace and be healed of your affliction."

THE EYES OF ALL
If the eyes of all could only once be opened to perceive the angels in their ministry
And the hearts of men and women could be made to understand
The sweet and loving strains of celestial harmony
Wouldn't the skies above ring out
With the cries and joyous shouts of mighty wonder,
Loud as thunder, from a heavenly storm?

And the rains pour down and bless like living water
To swell the rivers and the streams that feed the channels of our dreams,
And may we sail our sturdy ships upon that water

May we navigate our courses by the Spirit's mighty forces,
May we answer every son and every daughter
With the march toward perfection, and the truth for our direction!

If the eyes of all could only once be opened and our ears could hear them pray in majesty!
Then our hearts would know their yearning, and our minds would know their yearning!
It may reveal the sweetness of a prayer that's found completeness
Wouldn't the skies above ring out
With the cries of joyous shouts of might wonder,
Loud as thunder from a heavenly storm?

May we stand one day together with the angels,
Safely sail your star-bound soul to Paradise!
