TEXT FOR ANTHEM: JESUS ROLLED THE ROCK!

I suffered hopelessness, grief, and despair,
My life was a prison, couldn’t get anywhere,
The rock at the entrance of my tomb of defeat
Could not be moved, my death seemed compete!

But early one morning, on that glorious day
Jesus rolled the rock; He rolled the rock away!

On Calvary's summit that dark mournful day,
Death and despair stole our hopes away.
Who could have imagined on a bright Sunday morn
That death could be conquered, and new life reborn!

Jesus rolled the rock! He rolled the rock away!
He answered my call with the light of His day!
He rescued my soul, set this prisoner free!
Jesus rolled the rock; and gave life back to me!

When darkness surrounds you, all blessings have flown,
You're trapped and afraid, in a tomb of your own,
Let your voice pierce the heavens through the darkness and pray,
And Jesus will come and roll the rock away!

Jesus rolled the rock! He rolled the rock away!
He answered my call with the light of His day!
He rescued my soul, set this prisoner free!
Jesus rolled the rock; and gave life back to me!
Jesus rolled the rock; and gave life back to me!
